Eventers Tuesday Special – One dressage test & Cross-country schooling $40

On site Registration day of show begins at 1:30 pm. You can register for as many shows as you like.

Pre-registration (recommended). Send a check for however many tests you would like to ride to the Secretary or call with credit card (Your credit card can be kept on file for the year). No entry form required, just indicate that it is for the Tuesday Dressage. Wait until the check arrives then call or email the show secretary to pick a time/date. The schedule is not posted you must call for a time. Best time to call is in the afternoon. Entry form is now available on website. Do not use ESDCTA entry form.

NEW for 2009!! EZ pass check-in (optional). At your first show buy a number for $1. Use it every time you come and as long as everything is prepaid and scheduled just wave to us in the secretary stand to let us know you are on the grounds.

Awards: Six ribbons per test. Classes pinned at the end of the night. Fill out an envelope if you want ribbon mailed. You may ride as many tests as you like but only the two highest-level tests per show for each horse/rider combination will count towards year end awards. A horse should only do each test once even with different riders. A test can be repeated if it is ridden HC (no ribbon). High score amateur prize each night.

Year end awards Awards given for level: Introductory, Training, First Level, Second Level (any test) in dressage and Beginner Novice, Novice, Training and Prelim for eventing. May have Junior/Senior categories. Year-end Awards are based on an average of 4 best scores for a horse and rider combination. Lower scores will be dropped. You must get a score in 5 tests (not shows) to qualify. At least one of the scores must be in test 3 or 4 (for Intros & eventing - B). A level award can only be won once by the same horse/rider combination.

Attire and Equipment: Riders must be neatly attired and horses properly presented. Shirt with sleeves required, half chaps allowed, jackets and braiding optional. Hardhats must be worn when mounted.

Other: Readers are permitted. USEA tests run under dressage rules. Copies of tests will be available at show or call the Horse Park office.

All shows ESDCTA registered, Intro ring may have an unrated judge let secretary know if you need scores for ESDCTA. Check website for updated list of judges.
