On site Registration day of show begins at 1:30 pm. You can register for as many shows as you like. New phone number for secretary's stand (for TED only) – 267-337-4159

Pre-registration (recommended).

- 1- Mail entry form with check or credit card to secretary. Entry form with credit card may also be faxed to 610-847-5507. Entry form is on website – do not use ESDCTA form. Only 1 entry form for the whole season.
- 2- Call or email secretary to pick a time. Schedule is not posted you must call or email for a time. Afternoon calls preferred. Must be prepaid, credit card will be charged when time is assigned.
- 3- Check-in at secretary's stand to get a number. If paying with credit card you must fill out the slip. EZ pass check-in (optional). At your first show buy a number for $1. Use it every time you come and as long as everything is prepaid and scheduled just wave to us in the secretary stand to let us know you are on the grounds

Awards: Six ribbons per test. Classes pinned at the end of the night. Fill out an envelope if you want ribbon mailed. You may ride as many tests as you like but only the two highest-level tests per show for each horse/rider combination will count towards year end awards. A horse should only do each test once even with different riders. A test can be repeated if it is ridden HC (no ribbon). High score amateur prize each night.

Year end awards You must get a score in 5 tests (not shows) to qualify. Year-end Awards are based on an average of 4 best scores for a horse and rider combination. Lower scores will be dropped Leadline - For children 8 and under and special needs of any age, 5 tests at 5 different shows. Introductory Level - must have at least one score from test B. Training & First level - At least one of the scores must be in test 3 or 4. Second Level - any combination of at least 2 different tests. Eventing – any combination of at least 2 different tests - may move up a level. May have Junior/Senior categories. A level award can only be won once by the same horse/rider combination.

Attire and Equipment: Riders must be neatly attired and horses properly presented. Shirt with sleeves required, half chaps allowed, jackets and braiding optional. Hardhats must be worn when mounted.

Other: Readers are permitted. USEA tests run under dressage rules. Copies of tests will be available at show or call the Horse Park office. All shows ESDCTA registered, Intro ring may have an unrated judge let secretary know if you need scores for ESDCTA. Check website for updated list of judges.
